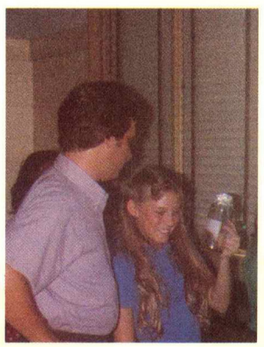
Who's Who 69



During her years at Pascagoula Junior High School, she has been very active in the school's activities. She has been the cheerleader sponsor and has taught physical education and science for several years. She always has time to listen to her students' problems.

For these reasons and many more, the staff proudly dedicates the 1983-84 edition of the Panther Paw to Mrs. Rose Mosley.

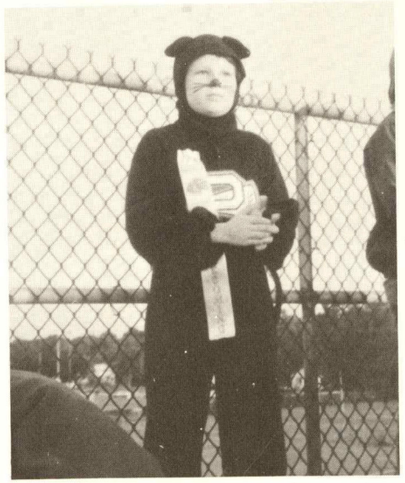
PANTHER PRIDE WEEK

What's the matter? Aren't you ready?

Like, totally!

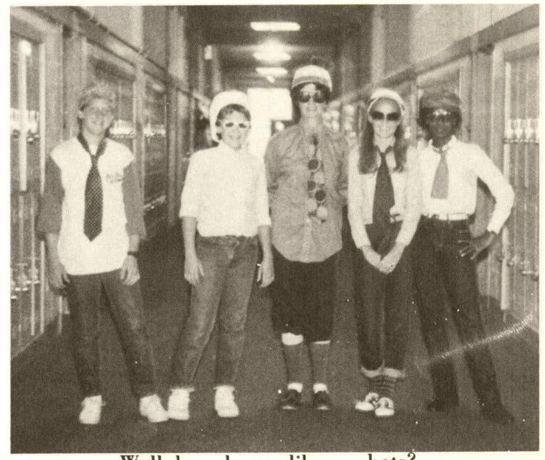
Patricia has that "Panther Pride."



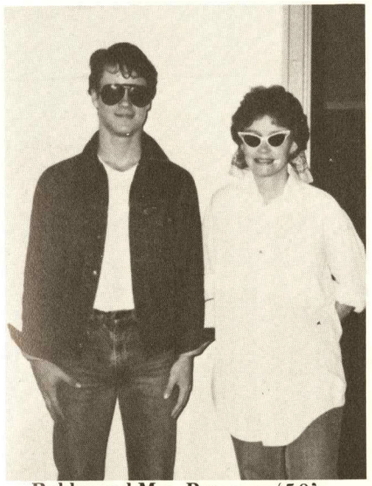
Leslie shows some real Panther spirit.

Show your stuff, Holly.

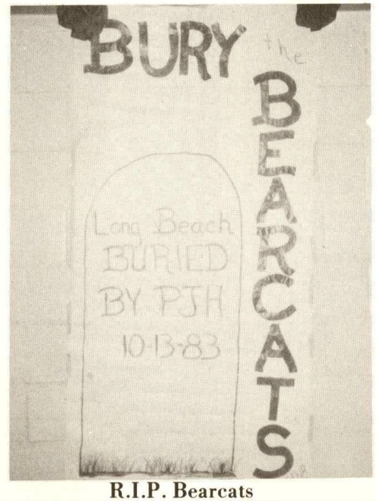
Say, "Cheese."



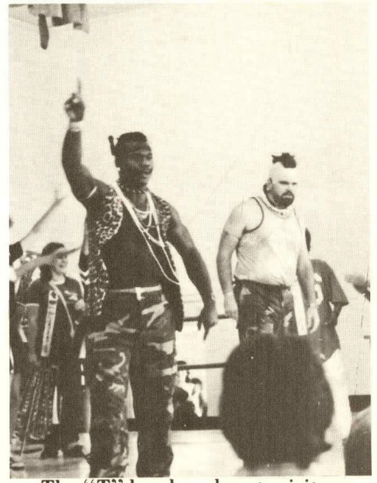
Well, how do you like our hats?



Robby and Mrs. Peters go '50's.



R.I.P. Bearcats



The "T" brothers boost spirit.

Annual staff members in their '50's look.

The gang goes punk.

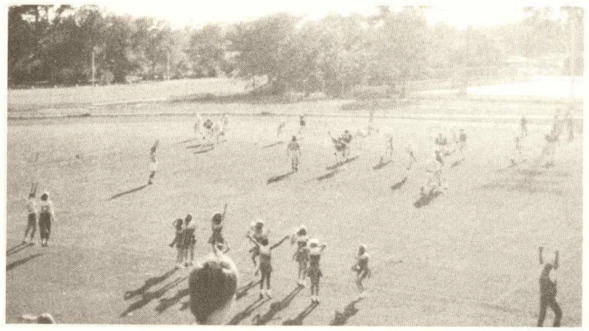
P.J. SEASON

Calvin, don't argue with the referee.



Score a TD for the mighty Panthers.

Is there a problem J. J.?

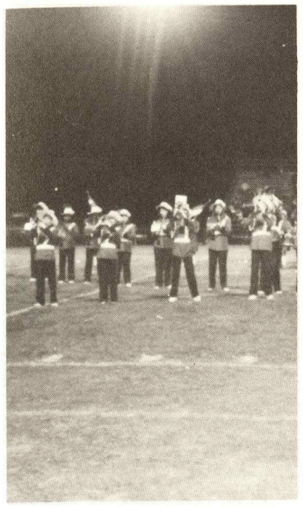
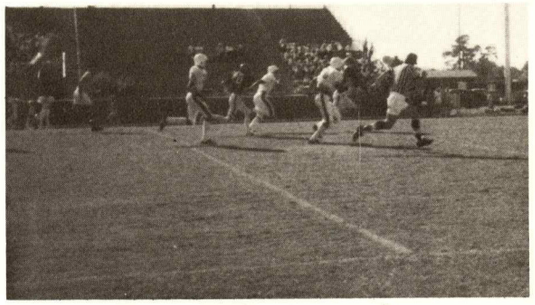
You missed the beat, Missy.



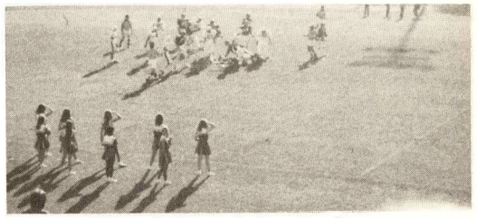
What a rockin' and rollin' band!



Come on, Ref, you can catch up.

The cheerleaders made spirit signs for each game.

Hello to you, Missy.



What dedicated cheerleaders —

Who's Who

Mr. and Miss P.J.H.S.

Roxanne Lar[illegible]

In the seventh grade, Roxanne was a Student Council representative. For the past two years, she has held the office of secretary.

In the eighth and ninth grades, she was a football manager. She has been a member of the Beta Club for two years. Last year she was on the annual staff and was voted eighth grade favorite and most polite.

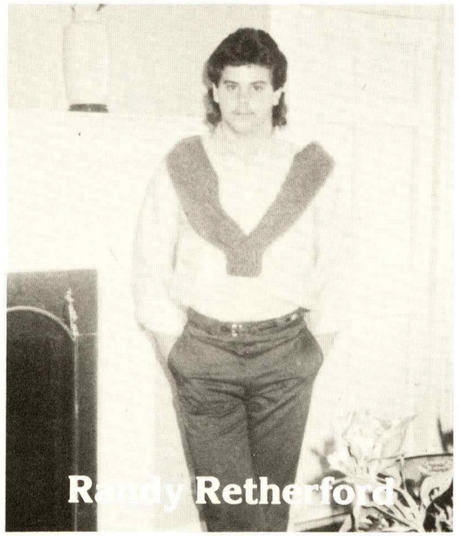
Roxanne has been a homecoming maid all of her years at PJ, and this year was voted homecoming queen.

Her hobbies are softball and swimming.

In the eighth grade Randy was voted eighth grade favorite. He was also voted most school spirit this year and last.

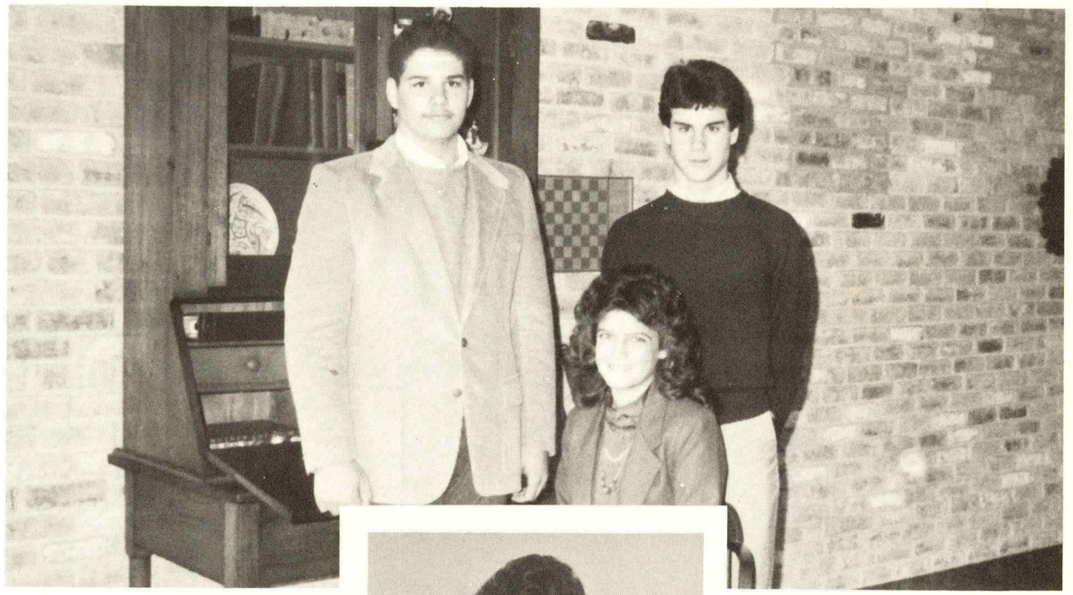
During Randy's eighth grade and ninth grade years, he was chosen most valuable defensive player, given the Panther Pride football award, and voted all-district.

Randy's hobbies are, of course, football and baseball.



Randy Retherford

Most Outstanding



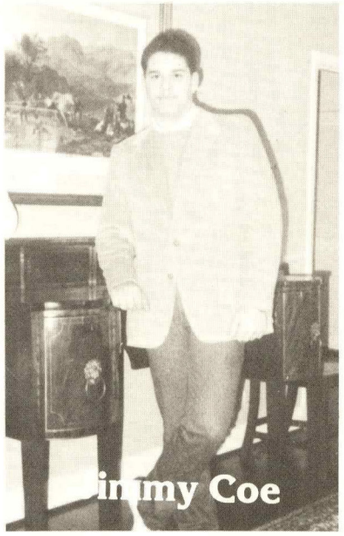
Jonna Jones

Jonna has been a cheerleader for three years and a member of the Panther Pride Court for two.

As a seventh grader she was chosen Most Academic and earned the Outstanding Youth Award as an eighth grader.

She serves as Student Council reporter and vice-president of the Beta Club.

Jonna's hobbies are boating, gymnastics, and playing tennis.

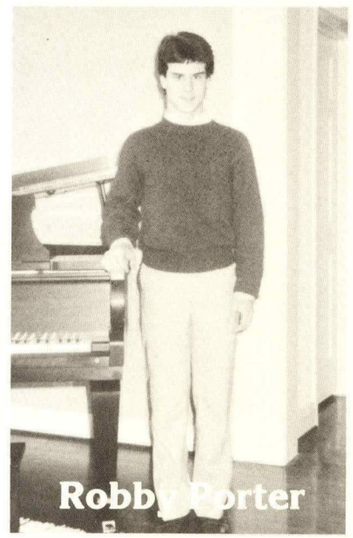


[illegible]mmy Coe

Jimmy has been a member of the band for three years and of Beta Club for two. He has been a participant in the IDEAS program for his three years at PJHS.

He received an honorable mention at regional and won a first place in the city science fair.

His hobbies are swimming, snow-skiing, soccer, and diving.



Robby Porter

Robby was presented math, science, and history awards as an eighth grader. He also received a certificate for perfect attendance last year.

He has been treasurer of the Art Club and an honor roll scholar for two years. He is a member of the Beta Club and was selected as a November student of the month.

Robby's hobbies are playing soccer and traveling.

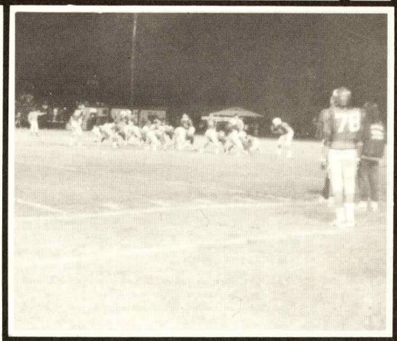
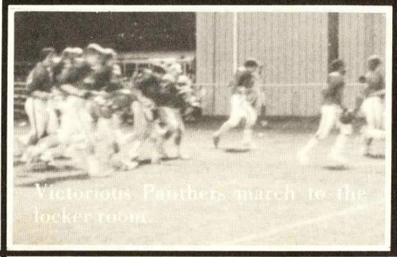
Coach Taylor shows off the trophy

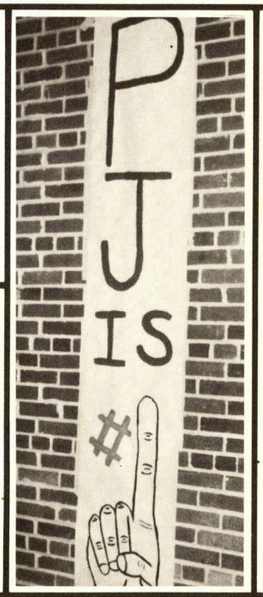
The Pascagoula Junior High School Panthers were invited to play in the 2nd annual Dixie Bowl held at St. Martin. Their opponents were the Ocean Springs Greyhounds. The game was a fierce defensive struggle to the finish. Dinky Harris led the 'Goula attack with 128 yards rushing, the game-winning TD, and the two-point conversion. The dymanite 'Goula defense held the Hounds scoreless. The final score showed PJHS 8, OSJH 0.

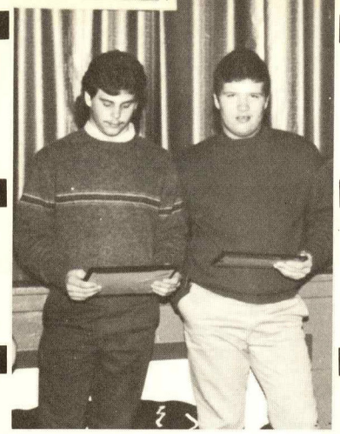




Victorious Panthers march to the locker room

Is something wrong, Roxanne?



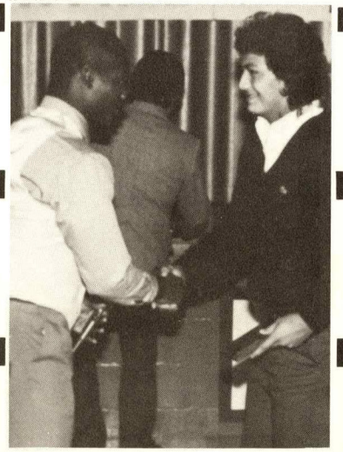


Randy and Marc were named all-district.

Hey cheerleaders, where are your uniforms?

Excuse me, but didn't I get an award?

Geoffrey Clemens, Most Improved(8); Shea Neely, Most Improved Offense(9); Cecil Jones, Defensive Back(8); Randy Retherford, Defensive Back(9); Marc Haarala, Offensive Lineman; John Grant, Offensive Back(8); John Parker, Offensive Back(9);Juan Alvarado, Best All-Around Player; Carl Tart, Defensive Lineman (8);Brian Conner, Most Improved Defense (9); and Gerald Duffy, Defensive Back (9).



Juan Alvarado was selected best all-around player.
